

GRAHAM & COLLIER,
 original creators of Wildomar town site and Blaine Camp local, present their compliments with this view taken from the mountain side, over the Blaine Wildomar, and hope you will find it interesting to note the plan and really the general locality, but of course being presented by our agent. There are other views not obtained which are worthy of your attention, and will enjoy you for a visit to Wildo-mar.

WILDOMAR
 claims to hold claims of advantage.
 Our climate, sweet, mild, near facilities, post office, railroad station, hotel, stores and other business houses, and our soil perhaps good, our progress built our town better, made us finer people.
 Our location makes make that of the great A. T.
 and S. F. N. R. from Blaine to San Diego, in an advanced position in our profits and our location for the future. We are situated from being within, by a construction of mountain ranges, that show made for our benefit.

WILDOMAR, CAL.
 IN THE LAKE COLONY, SAN DIEGO CO., 22 MILES FROM THE SEA COAST.
 ELEVATION: ABOUT 1200 FEET.
 The climate and scenery of Wildomar is unsurpassed. Our unique feature, the beautiful lake 2 by 5 miles in area, is completely encompassed by an enjoyable drive of 30 miles, including the most of Grand Avenue, 10 miles long; the surrounding level site, "Palms"; the perfectly fertile on Riverside St. and other streets; the town of Blaine; the hot Sulphur Springs; the railroad station and home again to a stirring town and scenery.

 is "only one town left" but in order to find the best town, at the opening of the San Diego county road, just organized 1882, and after a devastating path, whether the above title, you have in fact a great deal of a plan work.
 The town has been "created" Little advertising has been done, no buildings were intended, and no business spoken in the town that was not fairly intended by the building up of the surrounding country, which is being settled up by fast land and farms.

INQUIRIES BY MAIL
 addressed to us, or to Messrs. J. H. Fisher, or J. H. Lee, Blaine & Francisco, will receive prompt attention.
 We take pleasure in recommending the above named gentlemen as the best Blaine agents, who have the permanent good of Wildomar at heart, and are willing to do so. Sign of the Golden Lake Colony, and of the town site of Wildomar and Blaine, and be sent on receipt of order.
